

Problem Statement

USC's uneven bricks and paths are causing many people to fall, injure themselves, and lose precious food items, it poses a danger to students and visitors. This issue only gets worse when it rains or floods. Students need to be a top priority for safety.